AFTER A PROMISING START THE SIXERS No. 1 TEAM FADE

Lane Cove's Sixers No. 1 team were off to a hopeful start in the 1st set of the Mid-week Challenge against Lindfield Rollers No. 1 team.

Brian Paxton, Kevin Mulhall and Bob Patterson in scoring 10 points for their power play in the 1st set just about ensured their 14-7 win over Lindfield. A 5 against them in the 1st end of the second set made their task difficult, however, it was only in the last few ends that Lindfield managed to get in front for an 11-8 victory. Lane Cove 3 points: Lindfield Rollers 3 points.

Nascent Skip Stuart Smith's team flew the boxes and with Phil Wade in impeccable form in the vanguard allied with Kay Mulhall they comprehensively won the 1st set 13-6. A 4 against them in the 1st end of the 2nd set seemed to throw their game a little askew and Lindfield replied with a 13-5 win. Lane Cove 3 points: Lindfield Rollers 3 points.

Vic Solway, Ray Moran and Rex Johnston came ever so close in winning the 1st set ultimately losing to Lindfield 9-10 in a closely contested set. They were not so fortunate in the 2nd set where Lindfield struck form to win the set 15-4. Lane Cove 0: Lindfield Rollers 6 points.

Lane Cove lost to Lindfield 6 points (53 shots) /12 points (62 shots)

Lane Cove conceded 12 points in the 1st end of the 2nd set and did not recover losing all games of the 2nd set. Despite losing their first two games Lane Cove can match it with their conquerors, Lindfield Rollers and Mosman, as they were only beaten by 9 and 7 points respectively.

LANE COVE SIXERS No. 2 TEAM ENDURE A HARD DAY ON THE GREEN

After such a promising start against Lindieild last week Lane Cove No. 2 team was brought back to earth by a dominate Newport side last Saturday.

Julian Barker, Andrew Gordon and Robert Campbell fared best for Lane Cove and a power play to their opponents late in the 1st set put them out of contention for set honours going down 8-15. All played well in the 2nd set and they came away with a well earned 12-8 win.

Craig Marriott, Glenn Boardman and Marko Popovic lost both their sets, albeit by small margins, to Lindfield 8-12 and 6-10 respectively.

David Erskine, David Madson and Greg Moon had an uphill battle against their opponents losing their two sets 4-13 and 10-17 respectively.

TAPNER SHIELD TOURNAMENT 2022

Forty teams competed for the Tapner Shield of 2022 at St. Ives Bowling Club last Sunday.

Lane Cove's two teams each won two of four games played over the day. This was a good effort as the field was open to all comers including many zone representatives.

Vic Solway and John Lloyd: Lost 1st game 9-20, lost 2nd game 6-19, won 3rd game 14-7 and won 4th game 17-7.

David Erskine and Sarah Hobson: Lost 1st game 3-15 (North Sydney), won 2nd game 13-6 (St Ives), lost 3rd game 9-13 (Turramurra) and won 4th game.

In the first game David and Sarah came up against a North Sydney team led by Kenta Treacher. (Treacher, a school teacher by trade, represented Japan in the 2016 World Outdoor Bowls Championship in Christchurch and won a bronze medal in the triples with Hisaharu Satoh and Kenichi Emura. The bronze medal was the first ever bowls medal won by his Japan. In 2020, he was selected for his second World Championship at the 2020 World Outdoor Bowls Championship in Australia. He won two medals at the 2015 Asia Pacific Bowls Championships in Christchurch. He has also won many club, zone and other events)

Sarah was proud that she reduced a potential 5 deficit to 1 against such opposition.

In their second game David Erskine is reported to have had a 'blinder' of a game.

Manly Leagues Club Bowl Over Another Club

Today's Daily Telegraph reports that the Manly Leagues Club have acquired the Harbord Bowling Club. Whilst negotiations have been proceeding for some time details of the acquisition are not known.

North Manly bowling club was taken over by Manly Leagues Club in April 2018 and closed its doors to bowling in August 2019. It had been active for 67 years, with about 100 bowlers roughly split down the middle between men and women.

PRESIDENT'S RESERVE TRIPLES

All games will commence at 9.00am.

David Madson, Julian Barker & Robert Campbell play J Churchyard (Harbord)

The winners of these games will play at 1.00pm on Saturday except for Sarah Hobson's and Vic Solway's teams play at 9.00am on Sunday 27th February 2022.

CRAIG AND DAVID SURVIVE EPIC SEMI-FINAL CLASH

Craig Marriott and David Madson qualified for the final of the Handicap Pairs with a hard fought victory over Brian Paxton and Marko Popovic.

Craig and David were quick into stride and led 10-2 after 3 unchallenged ends. Brian and Marko won 8 of the next 9 ends to trail 11-12 after 11 ends before Craig and David added another 2 points for a 14-11 lead after 13 ends.

It was at this juncture that the game became ‘really’ interesting with some great bowls by players from both teams.

End 13: 3 shots down Craig superbly pushes the jack into the verge of the ditch for shot. Not to be outdone Brian, in perhaps the best bowl of his long career, magnificently trails the jack into the ditch for a resting toucher. Touché!

End 14: Confidence up! Brian and Marko are three shots down to close bowls of Craig and David. Undaunted, Brian lines up his third bowl on end 14 needing shot on a difficult long end with short bowls obstructng clear passage! Down the green goes the blue bowl around the short bowls between the shot bowls caressing the jack and carrying it to the ditch for 3 shots. How good is this! Smiling like a Chesire cat (a term was popularized by the character in Lewis Carroll's Alice's Adventures in Wonderland) Brian accepts the accolade of his admiring skip Marko on the changeover. Brian and Marko hold the 3 shots and they reach the lead 15-14 for the first time in the game.

Craig and David square up 16 apiece with 5 ends remaining. Try as they might Brian and Marko could not get a break despite holding shots as David would thwart their chances every time with some great draw shots.

At drinks after a most enthralling game Craig and David advanced to the final with a 22-17 win.

All players had their moments, however, David Madson’s consistency, especially over the last 5 ends, made the difference in the end.

AUSSIE DESTINATIONS - Ulladulla NSW

Popular holiday town surrounded by quiet beaches and pleasant coastal walking paths

Historically, Ulladulla was an important port for the local timber and dairy industry. Today the harbour is home to a fleet of commercial fishing trawlers but, increasingly, the town has become a coastal holiday resort and popular place for retirement. It is one of those rare places on the New South Wales coast where the main artery - the Princes Highway - actually passes the harbour which, with its two boat ramps, is nestled between enclosing headlands. On either side of the town there are holiday beaches, seven lakes and in the hinterland there are state forests, mountain ranges and national parkland which are ideal for bushwalks and scenic drives.

Location

Ulladulla is located 226 km south of Sydney via the Princes Highway.

Origin of Name

It is likely that 'ulladulla' is derived from a local Yuin Aboriginal word - either 'ullada ullada' and 'Woollahderra' which meant 'safe harbour'. There is a story that the term 'holey dollar', which was an early form of currency in the colony, is also involved in the evolution of the word. This is given considerable weight by a newspaper advertisement which appeared on 14 December, 1841: "For Holy Dollar and Broulee direct, the cutter FRIENDSHIP, to sail for the above Ports, on Wednesday next, the 15th instant." Apart from the spelling it does suggest that Ulladulla was once known as Holey Dollar.

Blessing of the Fleet

The annual Blessing of the Fleet - a festival which has its origins in the Italian Catholic immigrants who established Ulladulla's fishing fleet in the 1930s - is held each year on Easter Sunday.

Warden Head Reserve and Warden Head Lighthouse

The town's lighthouse was originally built on the Ulladulla Breakwater in 1873 and was transferred to Warden Head in 1879. The lighthouse is positioned 34 metres above sea level and has a range of 17 nautical miles (28 km). It was designed by Edward Moriarty in the Colonial Architect's Office and was made of curved wrought iron plates which were designed and built in Wollongong. In 1920 the original oil lamp was replaced and it was converted to electricity in 1964. The original lightkeeper's house is now a doctor's surgery in the main street of Milton.

The Coomie Nulunga Cultural Trail

The walk was created by the local Aboriginal Land Council.

One Track for All

One Track for All has four lookouts across the Tasman Sea and the town's harbour. There are interesting carved pieces of timber created by local Aboriginal elder, Noel Butler, which tell the Aboriginal and non-Aboriginal history of the district.

Burrill Lake

It is known as a quiet retreat with its shores edged by natural bushland and its waters popular with anglers. The inlet and beach lie to the east of the highway.

Lake Tabourie

Located 12 km south of Ulladulla on the Princes Highway is Lake Tabourie which boasts excellent beaches and a relaxed holiday ambience. At low tide it is possible to walk across to Crampton Island.

Tabourie Lake Museum was created in 1965 by a local, Jack Nicholson, and is a typical small local museum with displays of Aboriginal artefacts, telecommunications, whaling materials, minerals, shells, fossils, reptiles, spiders, bird's eggs, marine life and a variety of implements from the pioneering days.

Morton National Park and Pigeon House Mountain

Inland from Ulladulla is Morton National Park. One of the premier bushwalking experiences on the South Coast is the walk to the summit of Pigeon House Mountain (719 m). The walk to the summit takes four hours return but offers panoramic views of the rugged cliffs and gorges of the Budawang Ranges. To the north-west of Pigeon House Mountain are the two elongated plateaux of Byangee Walls and the Castle and to the east it is possible to see the coast all the way from Point Perpendicular in the north to Mount Dromedary (Guluga Mountain) in the south. Sandstone layers, deposited by a shallow sea 250 million years ago, can be seen in the surrounding cliffs.

Pigeon House Mountain, named by Captain James Cook in 1770 is a distinctive landmark in the area and was close to a traditional trading route.

Pigeon House Mountain is located at the south-east corner of the 162,000 ha Morton National Park which stretches from the Southern Highlands and includes rugged sandstone cliffs, deep, well-forested valleys, and the headwaters of the Clyde, Shoalhaven, Endrick, and Kangaroo Rivers.

Morton National Park is so large it includes flora ranging from sedgeland through woodland and heath to rainforest. There are wildflowers on the plateau, giant turpentine trees below the major cliffs, coachwood and black ash in abundance. There are also rare examples of Pigeon House Ash and a true rainforest canopy in the valleys and gorges. The park is particularly rich in birdlife with hawks, wedge-tailed and other eagles, parrots, honeyeaters, lorikeets, crimson rosellas, cuckoos, cormorants, grebes, lyrebirds and two threatened species - the swamp parrot and eastern bristle bird. There are also bandicoots, wallabies, dunnarts, possums, echidnae and dingoes.

Bawley Point

Bawley Point is a sleepy seaside village where coastal steamships were once built. Timber was the important local industry with a sawmill operating by 1881. By 1910 the local sawmill was reputedly the largest in the southern hemisphere.

Pointers Gap

Pointers Gap Lookout which is on the edge of the McDonald State Forest at the top of the escarpment. It offers panoramic views of Lake Conjola and the beaches south of Burrill Lake. The whole area, particularly the heathland, is particularly beautiful when the wildflowers are blooming in the spring and summer.

Lake Conjola and Fisherman's Paradise

Lake Conjola is a large lake which lies 14 km to the north of Ulladulla. The lake is a classic South Coast "get away from it all" designed for holidaymakers, sea changers and retirees whose idea of heaven involves boating (there are boat ramps at the two towns - Lake Conjola and the amusingly named Fisherman's Paradise), sailing, water skiing and safe swimming. Bream, flathead, whiting, tailor, and blackfish can all be found in the local waters.

Mollymook and Rick Stein's at Bannisters

Two kilometres north of Ulladulla is one of the best restaurants on the NSW South Coast - Rick Stein's at Bannisters. It specialises in seafood and offers a reasonably priced menu (compared to Sydney prices) which ranges from French through Indian and Malaysian to Modern Australian with heavy hints of Asia.

Narrawallee Creek Nature Reserve and Pattimores Lagoon

Beyond Mollymook is the Narrawallee Creek inlet to the southern end of Narrawallee Creek Nature Reserve which stretches north for 5 km along Buckleys and Conjola Beaches. Largely undisturbed the beaches are popular for fishing and surfing and are backed by a dune system and woodland through which there is a circular walking track.

Pattimores Lagoon, in the northern part of the reserve, is "Fringed with magnificent paperbarks, the picturesque lagoon literally teems with waterbirds, and you're likely to see southern emu wren, pied oystercatchers, pelicans and white-faced herons."

History

- * In 1770 Captain James Cook noted at Bawley Point, south of Ulladulla, that there were people on the shore who "appeared to be of a black or very dark colour."
- * On April 21, 1770 Cook sighted Pigeon House Mountain, to the west of the present town, which he described as "a remarkable peaked hill, which resembled a square dove-house, with a dome at the top, and which for that reason I called the Pigeon House."
- * The first Europeans to pass through the area were the survivors from the wreck of the Sydney Cove who reached the area in April, 1797. Nine of them died in the Batemans Bay area. Only three reached Sydney alive.
- * In 1797 George Bass sailed south and explored the coastline.
- * In 1827 Thomas Florance surveyed the coastline from Burrill to Narrawallee. He anchored his boat, the Wasp, in Ulladulla Harbour which, for a time, was known as Wasp Harbour.
- * In 1827 the first land grant in the district was issued to Reverend Thomas Kendall (1778-1832) who settled north of the present township of Milton. He called his property 'Kendall Dale'.
- * In 1839 Kendall's grandson Henry Kendall, who became one of Australia's most famous poets, was born on the estate. The residents of Ulladulla helped launch Kendall's literary career when, in 1862, they raised money by public subscription to publish his first book, Poems and Songs.
- * An area called 'The Settlement', upon the site of present-day Milton, was settled by farmers who began to use the harbour at Ulladulla which, at the time, was known simply as 'The Boat Harbour', to ship their produce to Sydney. The harbour was so primitive that ships were secured by a chain so they could be loaded.
- * More land grants were issued in the 1830s.
- * The site of Ulladulla was surveyed in 1837.
- * Ulladulla prospered as a timber port in the 1840s.
- * Around 1840 David and James Warden started building boats on the beach inside Ulladulla Harbour.
- * By 1856 the population of Ulladulla had reached 300.
- * In 1858 a road was marked out but it was not suitable for loaded wagons. That year a wooden jetty was built at the harbour by private subscription.
- * In 1865 the government built a wharf in the harbour.
- * In 1873 a lighthouse was built on the breakwater entrance to the harbour.
- * In 1889 the lighthouse was moved to Warden Head.
- * By the mid-1950s the weekly ferry service from Sydney, which had operated since the 1860s, finally stopped.
- * In 1956 the first Blessing of the Fleet was held.

“Thank you, but I failed to mention that there was a condition to your wishes. Whatever you wish for, your husband will get times ten!”

The woman said. “That’s okay.”

For her first wish, she wanted to be the most beautiful woman in the world.

The frog warned her.

“You do realize that this wish will also make your husband the most handsome man in the world, an Adonis whom women will flock to.”

The woman replied. “That’s okay because I will be the most beautiful Woman and he will have eyes only for me.”

So, KAZAM-she’s the most beautiful woman in the world!

For her second wish, she wanted to be the richest woman in the world.

The frog said.

“That will make your husband the richest man in the world. And he will be ten times richer than you.”

The woman said.

“That’s okay because what’s mine is his and what’s his is mine.”

So, ABRA-KADA-BRA-KAZAM-she’s the richest woman in the world!

The frog then inquired about her third wish, and she answered.

“I’d like a mild heart attack.”
